Dear Mr. Newell,

Please accept many thanks for your kind reception of Miss Wilkinson & myself yesterday; we much appreciated your kind attention.

I am leaving you the photographs of the pictures as I think it is swifter & quicker than the post; I feel sure they will appeal to you & I should be so very glad if I could dispose of a few.

I enclose a letter of introduction to Mr. Van Wetlie the owner of the pictures. He is a most delightful man & you will have a most enjoyable hour seeing his beautiful home so full of Artistic taste.

I have also written my Husband that he should secure a room at the Lutetia on hearing from you the date of your arrival in Paris, also not to forget to introduce you to the Commandant Trousselle who has the two precious Coins - Will you please return the photographs before you leave for Europe. The pictures will be on view at Ghrich's Gallery, 707 Fifth Ave. I should any of your friends come please ask them to mention your name as I shall notify Mr. Ghrich.

Wishing you a very pleasant trip & with United Kind regards

Believe me

Yours sincerely
